Assyrtiko

Grape Variety:

ASSYRTIKO, the noblest native white grape variety of Greece.

Status:

Appellation of Origin Santorini of High Quality.

Characteristics:

Assyrtiko is unique to the Mediterranean in that it achieves ripeness while maintaining high acidity. The wine is light in color with greenish tints. On the palate a fresh fruitiness is apparent with the development of a pleasant acidity and minerality, the latter derived from the unique character of the geology. Citrus and mineral notes develop on the palate.

Food:

Perfect as a accompaniment with seafood, salads, roast chicken and light dishes, but due to its distinctive minerality it will also compliment stronger flavored food. Best served chilled (46°F – 50°F).

Alcohol:

12.5%
