This Letter will confirm our understanding:

To induce Johnson Brothers Liquor Company, Phillips Wine & Spirits, Wine Merchants and their various divisions, subsidiaries, parents, affiliates and related businesses to sell merchandise and extend credit to the Customer above-named, I/we hereby unconditionally guarantee the prompt and full payment when due of any and all indebtedness that the Customer may owe you from time to time arising from your sale or delivery of merchandise to the Customer. I/we will also pay you any collection expenses and reasonable attorney's fees you may incur due to the Customer's default or to enforce this guaranty. I/we agree that these obligations may not be offset by any claim or counterclaim the Customer may have against you, or by any potential contribution from another guarantor. You may enforce this guaranty either before or after proceeding against the Customer.

This guaranty is continuing, absolute and unconditional, and I/we can revoke it only by giving you my/our termination notice in writing (verbal notice is insufficient). My/our guaranty will still cover any transactions that occur before you actually receive such written notice.

I/we hereby waive notice of acceptance, demand, protest, dishonor, default or non-payment, orders, sales and deliveries, and extensions of credit. My/our obligations under this guaranty will be joint and several, and not be affected by any settlements, compromises, releases, adjustments, or other transactions involving you and the Customer. I/we agree that you may bring any suit to enforce this guaranty in the state or federal courts located in Hudson County, New Jersey, and I/we consent to the venue and jurisdiction of said courts.

I/we understand that this is a legal agreement, and agree to be bound by its terms.
